TEXT ALERTS

Want to receive a text message when there's an important update from the studio? Sign up for DJS Text Alerts. To sign up please use the following guide to get on the alert list you would like to be a part of. If you have class multiple days in the week, be sure to subscribe to each class day. There is also a separate alert for our elite dancers. The text alerts will be used for important updates like cancelling class due to bad weather. For more information please visit our website @ http://dancinjsstudio.com/about.html#text_alerts to learn how to sign up for your class day(s)

Good Luck Dancers!

Competition season is here, and our Elite dancers will be hitting the stage with their routines. We would like to wish best of luck to our competitors. If you would like to join us in cheering them on, the competitions and locations are on the studio calendar on the website.

DJS CRUISE 2018

There are some changes in plans. We're working on ironing out the final details with our travel agency Mystical Dream Travel. If you're interested in getting more info, please let Miss Jen know, and we can add you to the private Facebook Group where we can communicate with everyone interested. We wanted to announce it as early as possible, so everyone can start fundraising now!
